NDIS Pricing Guide

Transparent, Fair, and Aligned with the NDIS Price Arrangements

At Reach Ability Support, we follow the latest NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits to ensure services are delivered transparently and fairly.

Our pricing is based on the NDIS national guidelines and is updated in line with changes released by the National Disability Insurance Scheme.

What Is the NDIS Pricing Arrangements Document?

The NDIS Pricing Arrangements (previously called the NDIS Price Guide) sets out the maximum prices NDIS providers can charge participants for supports and services. The Support Catalogue lists all available supports providers can use when lodging a payment request.

These arrangements help:

- Protect participants from overcharging
- Ensure consistency across providers
- Make services easy to compare and understand

You can view the latest NDIS pricing here, effective from 1 July 2026:

Our Services Are Billed According To:

- NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits 2026 – 2027
- As listed in the support catalogue 2026– 2027
- As per your agreed & approved scheduled of supports within our service agreement
- And Billed as per the support item (service) delivered.

  All supports we deliver are priced in accordance with the most current NDIS pricing limits.
